A lightweight trim and slim rifle with steel, straight-feed detachable box magazine.
Weight: 3.49 kg (7.7 lbs.). On option is a 6-shot clip magazine.

This new slim "Mannlicher" model is backed by a name that not only spells tradition but offers more than 100 years of gunsmithing experience.
The uncluttered good-looks of the Steyr-Mannlicher action have been retained in this rifle.
A fuller bolt-handle and an even smoother working bolt-cylinder are two new features of the action.
An added convenience is that the magazine can now be loaded when it is already inserted into the rifle. The magazine is now all steel and a 6-shot magazine is available on option.
The trim/slim redesigned walnut stock now boasts a sharp angled pistol grip (Kaisergriff) that makes sighting-in and firing-in an even greater pleasure.
With only 3.49 kg (7.7 lbs) weight this "Mannlicher" belongs to the group of so-called light repeating rifles.
The "weight" of this model is its clean styling, Mannlicher engineering and above all the extreme accuracy of the cold-forged barrel.
